

MONTEPULCIANO D'ABRUZZO DOC AMERIGO VESPUCCI

Categories: Abruzzo, Red Wine

Tags: Brazil, USA

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

TYPE OF WINE: Red

CLASSIFICATION: DOC

REGION: Abruzzo

AREA OF PRODUCTION: In the provinces of Chieti, L'Aquila, Pescara and Teramo

GRAPES: 100% Montepulciano

ALCOHOL: 12.5% □□vol.

COLOR: Very intense ruby □□red color, softened by purple / violet reflections, with a tendency to garnet if aged.

BOUQUET: The nose is soft and very pleasant: its appreciated bouquet is characterized by the presence of pleasant and soft notes of plum jam, marasca cherry, wild berries in conjunction with a delicate perception of vegetable background.

TASTE: On the palate the long taste persistence has no yielding: the prince of Abruzzo wines has a soft taste, with a right acidity that is never excessive: overall it is harmonious and unpredictable.

FOOD PAIRINGS: Particularly suitable to accompany tasty dishes such as seasoned and powerful cheeses, cured meats in general, rich soups, game, roasted or marinated wild boar, red meats and bitter chocolate.

SERVING TEMPERATURE: 16-18 ° C.

MARKETED IN: USA, Brazil